

Aaron M. Frits, P.E., ENV SP, M.ASCE

EDUCATION

- B.S. in Civil Engineering, Iowa State University, May 2003
- M.S. in Civil Engineering, University of Kansas, May 2008

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Project Manager, Bureau of Road Design, Kansas Department of Transportation, December 2007 to Present
- Road Designer, Bureau of Road Design, Kansas Department of Transportation, June 2003 to December 2007
- AASHTO Technical Committee on Geometric Design, Member
- Panel Member, National Cooperative Highway Research Program, Project 03-102: Design Guidance for Intersection Auxiliary Lanes
- Panel Member, National Cooperative Highway Research Program 03-105: Design Guidance for Interchange Loop Ramps
- Envision Sustainability Professional, October 2013 – Present

ASCE INVOLVEMENT

- Region 7 Governor (Kansas & Kansas City), 2012 – Present
- Leadership Training Committee, Member, 2016 - Present
- Key Contact Committee Member, 2012- 2015
- Legislative Fly-In Attendee, 2013 - 2016
- Kansas Section President, 2009-2010
- Kansas Section President-Elect, 2008-2009
- Kansas Section Younger Member Group President, 2007-2008
- Kansas Section Younger Member Group President-Elect, 2006-2007
- Egg Drop Coordinator, Kansas Section YMG, 2007-2011

OTHER VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

- Senior Design Course, Adjunct Instructor, Benedictine College, 2016
- Future City Great Plains Region Judging Coordinator, 2008 to Present

PERSONAL

- Married to my wonderful wife Brianna for 12 years, who is a Clinical Social Worker at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Topeka, KS.
- Son Nolan, age 9, and daughter Olivia, age 5, Son Colin, age 1