

ELISE M. IBENDAHL, P.E., ENV SP, M.ASCE REGION 7 GOVERNOR

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

EDUCATION

- B.S., Civil Engineering, Christian Brothers University, 1997

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Senior Project Watershed Services Technologist with 18 years of experience at CH2M, located in St. Louis, MO.
- East Region Technology Lead for Flood Risk Management and Global Communications Lead for Water Resources and Environmental Management.
- Experienced in hydrologic and hydrologic modeling in a variety of platforms for sewers and open channels and has expertise in both 1D and 2D modeling.
- Performs design and analysis for projects locally and around the United States containing aspects of drainage and stormwater management studies, including stream restoration, flood control study and design, stormwater master planning, green infrastructure solutions, sediment transport, and floodplain permitting.

ASCE INVOLVEMENT

- ASCE Region 7 Governor, 2014-present
- St. Louis Section Past President
- EWRI, St. Louis Section, Chair-Elect

OTHER VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

- Active member of SAME, MfSMA, CH2M Women's Network, and ASFPM
- ASFPM Foundation, Associate Board Member
- St. Louis University Civil Engineering Department Industry Advisory Board
- FIRST Lego League Coordinator, St. Margaret of Scotland School
- Youth Sing Praise Foundation, Board of Direction
- Saint Louis Chamber Chorus (since 1997)